CONFIDENTIAL.THE RESIDENCY, BANGALORE.

D.O.NO.C 3371/H2

The 5th September, 1924.

Dear Mr. Matthan

The Resident is informed that the Mysore civil officials recently requisitioned the Kolar Gold Field Battalion, Auxiliary Force, India, to assist the civil power by the protection of certain points by means of guards. I am desirous to enquire whether such an application for assistance was in fact made and, if so, the circumstances in which it was made, the form of the requisition and the manner of compliance.

Yours faithfully

K. Matthan

My dear sir,

cc

With reference to your D.O. letter No. 596/C.

B. of the 5th instant enquiring whether any requisition was recently made by the Civil Authorities in Kolar for the - Kolar Gold Field Battalion Auxiliary Force to assist the - Civil Power by the protection of certain points by means of guards etc., I write to say that no such requisition has - been made so far. I enclose herewith for reference and kind return the files of papers of this office and the Kolar Gold Field Special Magistrate's Court relating to the - recent strike in Nandidrug Mine. It will be seen therefrom that there was no occasion to make such an application on the said occasion though a breach of the peace was - apprehended at the time. But a list showing the constitution and strength of the Auxiliary Force had been kept -
